THE CANAL-WACKER BUS ROUTE

is being extended north and east to Navy Pier from its present north terminal at Wacker Drive and Wabash Ave., effective Monday, April 2, 1951.

From Wacker Drive, the buses are to operate north in Wabash Ave. to Grand Ave., and then east in Grand to Navy Pier, using the same route in reverse direction for southbound trips. The south terminal remains at Canal St. and Archer Ave.

THE NEW ROUTE . . .

North in Wabash Ave. from Wacker Drive to Grand Ave., east in Grand Ave. to Navy Pier, and then back south over the same route.

THE NEW SERVICE . . .

Links Navy Pier and the near north side area with Illinois Central Randolph St. Terminal, with the North Loop area, with Northwestern Station, and with the Union Station.

TRANSFER CONNECTIONS . . .

Convenient transfer connections are being provided with the new Milwaukee Ave. Subway (at Lake St. Transfer Station); with the State St. Subway (at Lake-Randolph Station); with the "L" (at State-Lake Station).

Transfers are to be exchanged also with all CTA surface routes intersecting the Canal-Wacker route.

Canal-Wacker buses are to operate from about 6 a.m. to about 7 p.m., Mondays through Saturdays.

SHUTTLE BUS SERVICE . . .

Canal-Wacker 10¢ shuttle service is to operate as at present Mondays through Fridays in the rush hours (from 7:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m., and from 3:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.).

The rush hour 10¢ shuttle zone extends from Canal St. and Roosevelt Road to Wacker Drive and Wabash Ave.

Passengers boarding beyond or traveling beyond the rush hour shuttle zone, or requesting transfers to other CTA lines, are to pay regular 15¢ surface fare.

FOR I. C.—NAVY PIER RIDERS . . .

An out-of-the-weather transfer is available to Illinois Central commuters traveling between Randolph St. Terminal, the near north side, and Navy Pier.

Use the South Water exit-entrance of the Illinois Central's Randolph St. terminal, the lower-level sidewalk on E. South Water St., between Beaubien Court and Wabash Ave., and the stairway to and from street level at the southwest corner of Wacker and Wabash—near the northbound stop for Canal-Wacker buses.
