REVISED DOWNTOWN SURFACE ROUTINGS

● New routings for CTA streetcar and bus lines operating in the central business district are being established beginning Saturday, November 10, 1951 to conform to the City of Chicago's new downtown system of one-way streets.

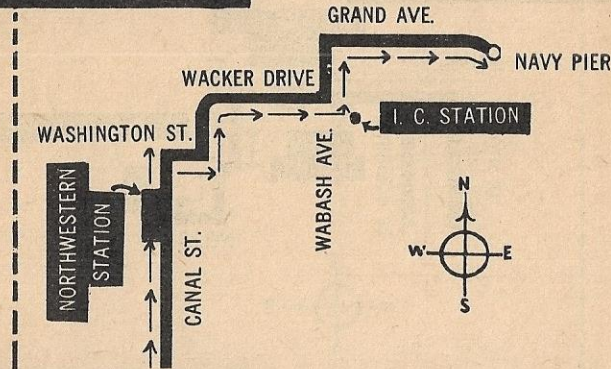

Lines being rerouted under the new plan are Canal-Wacker, Lake Street, Ogden-Randolph, Milwaukee Ave., Madison St. and Harrison-Adams. Also affected are the following downtown bus routes which serve the various railroad depots during morning rush hours on weekdays: Archer, Clybourn, Harrison-Adams and Taylor-Merchandise Mart (also operates in p.m. rush).

Under the city's new one-way street system, Randolph, Madison and Adams become westbound streets, and Washington and Monroe are to be eastbound streets.

Details of the CTA reroutings follow:
