

ANNOUNCING Extension of Non-Rush Hour Buses to 22nd Street and Mannheim Road

Service on CTA's Westchester-Forest Park bus route will be extended to 22nd Street and Mannheim Road during the non-rush hours on weekdays and Saturdays, beginning Monday, September 22, 1952.

The present terminal of the line is at Canterbury Avenue and Westchester Boulevard. The three-quarter mile extension to 22nd and Mannheim is being made to serve the residential development in the southwest section of Westchester.

A detailed schedule of buses which will serve the 22nd-Mannheim area is shown on the inside pages of this leaflet.

Service to and from Canterbury terminal will continue to run on present schedules.

Buses serving the new southwest terminal will operate over the regular Westchester-Forest Park bus route to Canterbury and Westchester Boulevard. They will then run south in Westchester Boulevard to 22nd Street, west to Mannheim, north to Balmoral, north in Balmoral to Canterbury, and then continue north in Balmoral over the present routing.

The 22nd-Mannheim terminal is presently served by certain Westchester-Forest Park buses during morning and evening rush hours, Mondays through Fridays. This operation continues unchanged. A detailed schedule of these rush hour buses is also reproduced on the inside pages of this leaflet.
