

LET'S GO OUT TO THE BALL GAME

GO CTA

Watch the Sox play . . . go CTA

Come on out to the ball game riding CTA rapid transit or bus directly to White Sox Park. Why fight traffic or worry about parking when CTA can take you there with comfort and ease.

Lake-Dan Ryan air-conditioned rapid transit trains operate at frequent intervals and stop at the Sox-35 station. It's so close that the station is even named for the park. North Western Railway commuters may change to Lake-Dan Ryan trains by using the Northwest Passage, a weather-protected passageway linking the North Western downtown terminal and CTA's Lake-Clinton station. Travel time from the Loop to Sox-35 station is just six minutes.

North-South route trains also stop at 35th Street (Tech-35 station), just a short walk to the park.

Direct bus service is provided by routes 35 35th Street and 22A Wentworth.

Convenient transfers may be made to these services from other rapid transit and bus routes at intersecting points.
