THE How to tackle Bears' game traffic. Next time GAME you're planning on PLAN going to a Bears game, make it easy on yourself with

Metra, the nation's premier commuter rail system. Simply take Metra's Chicago & North Western, Burlington Northern or Milwaukee lines downtown, then hop on one of our chartered shuttle buses to Soldier Field. Metra/Electric passengers can get off at 18th or 12th Streets and walk to the game.

Bears Buses depart from the Chicago & North Western Station (C & NW Lines) at Canal and Washington Streets, and from Union Station (BN & Mil. Lines) on the east side of Canal Street. (See the following page for Bears Bus departure times.)

It's the best way to avoid the rush because it's faster, more convenient and a lot less aggravating than driving.

And for just $1.00 each way, Bears Buses are also the most economical way to meet the "Monsters of the Midway", without the monsters on the highway.
