

Chicago Transit Authority
Loop 'L' Centennial
1897-1997

Sunday, October 12, 1997

CTA & AT&T WIRELESS SERVICES

Present

LOOP THE LOOP 5K FUN RUN

8:30 a.m. Race begins at Harold Washington Library Center, State & Van Buren Streets, kicking off the Loop Centennial Celebration. The first male and the first female crossing the finish line receive a FREE 1-year CTA Transit Card. Great gifts and prizes will be raffled at random.

RACE HOTLINE: (773) 929-5979

100th ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

11:00 am–5:00 pm Quincy between LaSalle and Wells. 1893 Lake Street 'L' steam locomotive, vintage trains and buses, live entertainment, and the United States Post Office will issue a Pictorial Cancellation in honor of the centennial.

Noon–5:00 pm Randolph/Wabash, Library (State/Van Buren), or Quincy/Wells stations. Loop Tour Train on 1920's Antique Rail Cars.

1:00 pm–5:00 pm Library State/Van Buren. PUTTING THE GO IN CHICAGO, a historical exhibit with over 80 vintage photographs at the Harold Washington Library Center.
1:30 pm "105 Years of the 'L,'" a sixty minute slide presentation by Bruce Moffat, Administrative Manager of the CTA Brown Line.
3:00 pm "Public Views on Public Transit," a slide presentation and lecture by Ron Weslow, CTA Marketing Manager.

AT&T Wireless Services

